Find Your Scene

From studio streets to vintage-lined boulevards, every Burbank neighborhood has its own story to step into.

DOWNTOWN BURBANK

Catch a movie, grab a table, or browse at more than 600 shops and restaurants. Downtown Burbank puts dining, entertainment and plenty of photo-worthy stops within easy walking distance.

MAGNOLIA PARK

Go retro along Magnolia Boulevard, where vintage shops, indie boutiques, and eateries like Porto's Bakery & Cafe make every block worth exploring.

MEDIA DISTRICT

Step into the heart of the entertainment industry, home to studios like Disney and Warner Bros., behind-the-scenes experiences, and favorite local spots where Hollywood insiders gather.

AIRPORT DISTRICT

Land in the heart of the action at Hollywood Burbank Airport, with hotels, shopping and transportation nearby. Debuting its new terminal in October 2026, it will offer more space, modern facilities and expanded dining and shopping.

BURBANK NEIGHBORS

Keep exploring beyond the city limits. Some of LA's biggest attractions are just minutes from Burbank, making it easy to add more to your itinerary. →

Step Into the Story

In Burbank, storytelling doesn't stop at the studio gates. Follow our signature trails that bring larger-than-life heroes and bold works of art into the streets.

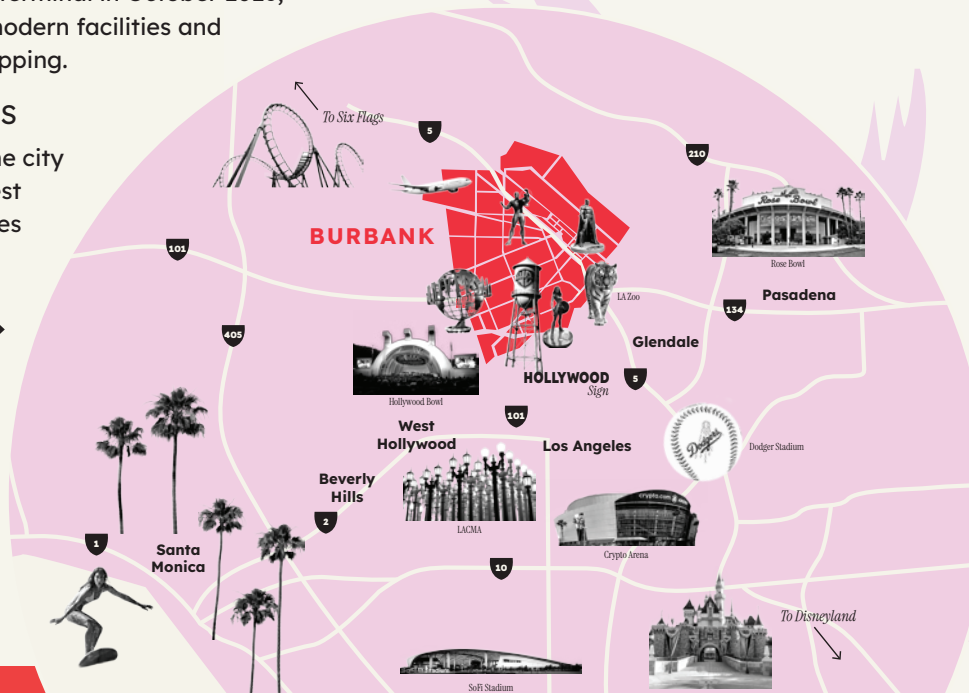

FOLLOW THE HEROES

EXPLORE THE MURAL WALK

See another side of Burbank's creative spirit through colorful murals found across its neighborhoods. Find public art, pop-culture tributes, and local landmarks around every corner.
